finding the time to read and pray as part of our spiritual disciplines is sometimes difficult enough let alone what to read where and why one thing provides a daily devotional intended to be read in less than two minutes but filled with a day's worth or more of inspirational topics stories scripture verses and events from both the old and new testaments among the unique themes there are familiar characters scattered throughout the book but there's also a considerable amount of time given to characters who usually don't come to the reader's mind but were in the hearts and minds of the various writers as they were moved by one thing you'll find many quotes cited from Einstein to Augustine Julian of Norwich to the Beatles challenges are presented along the way just like life itself but hopefully one thing will play an instrumental role in helping preparing and reminding us daily we are one in love in him so be blessed and be a blessing enjoy living moving and being as one these things I have spoken to you that my joy may remain in you and that your joy may be full John 15:11 peace focusing on the medieval reception of book zeta of Aristotle's metaphysics volume one of this work offers an unprecedented and philosophically oriented study of medieval ontology against the background of the current metaphysical debate on the nature of material objects volume two makes available to scholars one of the culminating points in the medieval reception of Aristotle's metaphysical thought by presenting the first critical edition of book VII of Paul of Venice's commentary on Aristotle's metaphysics 1420-1424
