unimpressed with the few packaged tours that she experienced the author launched upon the research of worldwide independent travel that would ultimately lead to the publication of how to go almost anywhere for nothing and to a new career as a writer on travel consumer and women s issues she has traveled extensively in asia europe north africa and america from the introduction i began a quest for information on really cheap travel i researched an extraordinary amount of published material and then embarked upon many years of travel and research in the united states and abroad i have now traveled extensively and at very little expense in asia north america europe and a bit in africa the scope of this particular volume will necessarily focus on areas with which i have the greatest familiarity southeast asia remains a favorite because of the low ground costs and the most detailed information will cover asian ports of call such as hong kong malaysia thailand and singapore with some reference to specific destinations within europe and the united states my latest major trip was to morocco and that country is covered in this edition in the united states the largest port of entry cities will get the most attention not only because three of my favorite cities fall into this category but for the benefit of visitors from other lands the principles outlined herein should pertain to travel almost everywhere and you will be able to apply them with just a little bit of courage and imagination malaga spain 2 day tour from the moors to picasso Málaga is one of the oldest cities in the world with its history dating back to the phoenicians in the eighth century bce it is an elegant vibrant and interesting city and has been the home and birthplace of many famous people including pablo picasso and antonio banderas are you a lover of art and history then this is the itinerary for you the itinerary focuses on the area around the port and the old town of Málaga day one takes in the east side and day two the west side both days have a mixture of art museums and sights included in the itinerary are museum of popular arts and customsthis quaint museum is often missed which is the loss of others but not you with open displays shown in a moorish influenced old tavern you get to see the Málaga of yesteryear for a tiny €2 Málaga marketalthough i have recommended restaurants and tapas bars in the itinerary sometimes a picnic is just as good this market with its fresh produce is where the locals do their shopping grab fresh bread some olives cheese and oil and create your own feast or simply enjoy the sights and smells of the real Málaga the english cemeterya little known fact Málaga was the first place in spain to have a cemetery for non catholic christians the first day s itinerary takes you to these beautiful restful gardens these are just tasters of a delicious 2 days also included are the pablo picasso museum the carmen thyssen museum Málaga cathedral alcazaba and roman theatre castel gibralfaro the bullring contemporary art gallery restaurant recommendations what does this malaga itinerary include the itinerary has been split into two days allowing ample time for the sights to be taken in without rushing each sight is accompanied with pictures and a walking map to ensure a stress free experience time has also been given for siestas and long lunches the spanish way in the height of the summer the temperatures can reach 40 c and walking during that heat is not advised and can be very tiring in addition a number of shops and sights close between the hours of 2pm and 4pm the hottest part of the day therefore has been given over to food and relaxation to help make your stay as enjoyable as possible i have included a number of useful spanish words and phrases in the appendix still unsure my e mail is in the itinerary and i am always happy to help i can guarantee that if art and history interest you you will have a wonderful vacation in this fascinating city
